We Will Wait Upon the Lord

The Lord will wait, that He may be gracious to you; and therefore He will be exalted, that He may have mercy on you. For the Lord is a God of justice; blessed are all those who wait for Him. Isaiah 30:18

Father God, you are sovereign. All authority, all power is Yours. Mat. 28:18. Nothing takes You by surprise. All circumstances serve You, and You know the end from the beginning. Psalm 119:91, Isaiah 46:9-10. We recognize that all things are for our good and Your glory, to conform us to the likeness of Jesus. Romans 8:28-29. We know that your lovingkindness never ceases, and Your compassions never fail. They are new every day. Great is Your faithfulness. Lam 3:22-23

Forgive us, Father, for not waiting patiently upon You. You are a gracious and good Father who desires to give good gifts to His children. We know that Your Word tells us that You supply all our needs by Your riches in Jesus. Phi. 4:19 Forgive us for our unbelief. We want to know with certainty that You will guard what we have entrusted to You, (2 Tim 1:12) whether it be our finances, our children, our futures, our health, salvation of a loved one, or for justice to be served. We easily become impatient and fret, desiring a smooth path. Yet, in looking back through the hills and valleys, You nurtured growth in the experience of waiting upon You. Forgive us for desiring our own plans rather than Yours. For Your ways are not our ways and Your thoughts are far greater than our thoughts. We have so much to be grateful for, Lord. We must continually remind ourselves to think upon whatever is good, true, right, and admirable.

It is with much gratitude that we pray. We are so thankful for the richness of community, the compassion we receive from one another during times of need, the prayer received, the gentle correction, and the passing of Godly wisdom. We have experienced all these blessings being connected to a body of Believers at Veritas Academy. It is a place in which iron has sharpened iron and a place where we have held one another accountable. With thanksgiving we receive, Lord. You are in our midst, and it has been a place where we have had to wait upon You. That is good, lest we become prideful. We have had to wait upon you for facilities, for the right teachers to fill positions, for students to mature in their faith, for You to nurture and mature us as parents, and to wait for you as our new home awaits our arrival. It is in all this uncertainty that you carry us, correct us, and cover us.

Those who wait on the Lord
Shall renew their strength;
They shall mount up with wings like eagles,
They shall run and not be weary,
They shall walk and not faint.

Isaiah 40:31

The Lord is good to those who wait for Him, to the soul who seeks Him. Lamentations 3:25
